

2005

Naval Postgraduate School Board of Advisors: Mr. G. Kim Wincup

---

<http://hdl.handle.net/10945/6632>

Calhoun is a project of the Dudley Knox Library at NPS, furthering the precepts and goals of open government and government transparency. All information contained herein has been approved for release by the NPS Public Affairs Officer.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

Naval Postgraduate School Board of Advisors

Mr. G. KIM WINCUP
Science Applications International Corporation

Mr. Wincup has more than 25 years of experience in national security matters. Seventeen years were spent in the Congress as Counsel to the House Armed Services Committee and House Veterans Affairs Committee, and as Staff Director of the House Armed Services Committee and the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress. Three years were spent in the Pentagon in Presidentially appointed roles in personnel and acquisition.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Science Applications International Corporation , (January 1995 to Present)

As a Senior Vice President, Mr. Wincup has responsibility to develop corporate opportunities in Federal DOD (Civil/Military) Information Services and to lead the corporation's effort for the acquisition of companies in the Federal sector.

Committee on Veterans Affairs, US House of Representatives, (July - September, 1994)

Mr. Wincup was Counsel to the Committee working on a special project for the Chairman related to encouraging cooperative efforts between the Department of Defense and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Visiting Professor of National Security Affairs, Naval Postgraduate School, (January - June, 1994)

Mr. Wincup served as an Instructor for courses on Congress and National Security Policy.

Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, (January - December, 1993)

Mr. Wincup served as Staff Director for the Joint Committee with a mandate for a bipartisan, bicameral "full and complete study" of the Congress.

Department of the Air Force, Pentagon (May - December, 1992)

Mr. Wincup was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Acquisition) and served as Service Acquisition Executive responsible for the management and oversight of the United States Air Force's acquisition program.

Department of the Army, Pentagon, (November, 1989 - May, 1992)

Mr. Wincup was appointed as Assistant Secretary of the Army (Manpower and Reserve Affairs). He was responsible for the Army's active duty, reserve and civilian personnel during the post Cold War drawdown and the Desert Storm operation.

Committee on Armed Services, US House of Representatives, (January 1974 - November, 1989)

Mr. Wincup served as Counsel and then Assistant General Counsel for the Committee for ten years before becoming Staff Director and thus responsible for all legislative and management activities of the Committee for the last six years of his service.

United States Air Force, (January, 1970 - December, 1973)

Mr. Wincup served on active duty as a Judge Advocate and was involved in extensive trial and administrative law activities.

EDUCATION

DePauw University, B.A., Political Science, 1966.

University of Illinois School of Law, J.D., 1969.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Principal, The Council for Excellence in Government

Association of the United States Army

Member, Secretary of Defense Task Force on Quality of Life

Member, Board of Advisors, Naval Postgraduate School

Vice Chairman, Congressional Commission on Servicemembers and Veterans

Transition Assistance, Public Law 104 - 275

Member, Defense Reform Task Force

Member, Defense Science Board Task Force on Human Resources